

TRUE or FALSE
20 POINTS

???

If someone is not kind towards you, you should not be kind towards them.

RISK
50 POINTS

One way to be kind is to compliment others. Turn to the person sitting next to you and give them a compliment!

Make sure everyone in your group participates and is included!

As the research says, creative play really is the language of childhood. No matter the topic covered, I have found that as long as the lesson involves a bit of art, role-playing, games, and some freedom of movement, students are engaged. In this quiz show style lesson, students get to answer through acting, drawing, imagining, and problem solving as a team. I hope that your students enjoy this activity, having serious fun learning!

IMAGINE IF
30 POINTS

Imagine if you saw someone trip and fall in the hallway at school. How could you show kindness?

SKETCH IT
20 POINTS

Draw a heart and inside it, write the name(s) of at least one person who has a kind, caring, and compassionate heart. Draw It!

ACT IT OUT
30 POINTS

In silence, without any words, act out a time you were kind towards someone else and see if the rest of the class can guess what that act of kindness was.
